

Walking the Land

A number of years ago our doorbell rang and when we answered, a young American girl stood on the doorstep clutching some boxes of breakfast cereal. We invited her in and she asked if she could stay with us for a short time. She told us that the Lord had called her to come to England and walk around the perimeters of churches, praying and claiming them back again for him. To do this with all the churches in England was not possible but she had ended up here on the Wirral. We had never heard of anything like this before but we knew in our hearts that this was a genuine call of God. Our small part in it was to offer her hospitality.

Since then blessing has come to a number of churches on the Wirral and who knows, perhaps it all began when that young American girl hearing a call of God walked, praying as she went around those buildings.

This call may not be ours but our feet will tread in many places this next month. Wherever our footsteps are placed we can pray and claim that land for the Lord whether it is a hospital, a train station or a garage forecourt.

Remember Abraham journeying through Canaan building an altar to the living God at the heathen Canaanite shrines. He prayed as he travelled, believing that the land would one day be inherited by his descendents. Many centuries later it happened. He walked the land.

So stride out for the Lord, in his name, pray down blessing and claim this land for him.

*We walk the land
proclaiming that it
all belongs to You,
Lord Jesus..*
